CHILDREN NEARLY DROWNED.

Two little half-white girls were saved from drowning in the Kalia
stream back of Judge Wilcox's place Sunday forenoon by a young native in the employ of the Judge. The young man tells the following story of the occurrence:

"In the morning a man and woman,
with their two little daughters, came out to a place in the vicinity of the home of Judge Wilcox. The children soon drifted away into the fields and finally came to the stream.

"I happened to be walking near by when a Portuguese woman cried out to me: 'Make, make.' At the same time pointing to the surface and, surmising
the cause, jumped into the water that was about up to my neck. I dove down and brought up a little half-white girl.
As I was making for the bank I stumbled over something else, and, diving
down again, found another little girl.

"The first one was gasping, while the other I thought was dead. I held them upside down to let the water run out, and very soon they both came to. The children had evidently gone into the stream to play and had got over their depth. Had I been a few seconds later both children would undoubtedly have been drowned."

The mother and father were summoned, a doctor was sent for, and in the afternoon the children were in condition to be taken home.

SHOULD BE OF INTEREST.

We have just marked and placed on sale another large shipment of merchandise direct from New York, comprising among other things some of the latest novelties for ladies' evening wear, arriving just in time for the approaching opera season.

French Silk Gauzes.

With alternating satin and lace stripes, 44 inches wide, in black and all the popular evening shades—pink, light blue, maize, lavender, black spot, with silver threads, black with satin stripe and ecru lace insertion, Nile green, maize with satin stripes and ecru lace insert on, black spangled with gold sequins, black spangled with cerise sequins, and white spangled with silver sequins. These are only a few of a stock too numerous for individual mention, comprising chiffons, silk muirs, liberty silks, &c.

Pineapple Silk.

This most desirable fabric we import direct from Japan, and the number of good qualities it possesses is astonishing. It resembles silk in lustre and strength; it is made from a vegetable fibre, and consequently washes, blundering perfectly; it does not readily crumple or muss, but once rumpled it is readily pressed so that it looks as good again as new. In spite of its extreme thinness, its strength is remarkable. It makes one of the daintiest of evening dresses.

Gimps and Passanteries Galore.

For trimming evening dresses. We have a stock very complete in all evening shades, in bead passanteries, silk appliques, chiffon ruffles and ruchings, sequins in all colors, sequin trimmings and applique, and a host of others too numerous to mention.

Gloves, Gloves, Gloves.

We carry the world-known Dent's kid gloves, than which no better is made. We have them from two-clasp length up to twenty-two (22) button length. We have them in black, white, pink, light blue, lavender, tans, etc. Any one wanting a first-class, perfect fitting glove, will do well to call and examine the Dent gloves. Their price is no higher than others in spite of their superiority.

Fans.

Just received and marked, a line of the latest in evening fans, no two alike. Among them there are some exquisite creations, hand-painted, daintily colored, with hand-carved ivory sticks. No evening gown will be complete without one of these fans. Come and see them.

Opera Capes.

Just received direct from Europe, a half dozen opera capes which we believe will be pronounced by competent judges to be the triumph of the dressmaker's art. There are no two of these alike in any respect, and any lady wanting a really chic and up-to-date cape should see these at once. They are so new and so desirable they will not last long.

Now a word on other subjects than evening wear.

Ladies' Muslin Underwear.

Our stock of this is very complete and choice, we buying only of the very best makers with the most advanced ideas and styles. This stock is worthy of inspection.

Shirt Waists.

We have just placed on sale another line of ladies' waists, in both colors and white, comprising everything that is latest and new; and of some importance, they are marked right.

For the benefit of tourists who come here unprepared with suitable clothing adapted to this climate, we would say that our shirt waists and our ready-made skirts of linen and covert cloth, etc., should prove a boon.

GENTLEMEN!

We have just received direct from New York, a very choice line of the latest in NECKWEAR. There is not an old number in the lot. These have been very carefully selected, and will only have to be seen to be appreciated. In addition we have our usual stock of carefully selected Gents' Furnishings.
